

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

The — Future of — Corporate Governance

The Future of Corporate Governance - is a monthly ECGI newsletter that explores the most pressing issues and trends in corporate governance, drawing on cutting-edge research and global insights. Authored by a young scholar, the newsletter will address challenges such as AI and cybersecurity, ESG, geopolitics, shareholder activism, and more.

By aligning your brand with ECGI's The Future of Corporate Governance newsletter, you'll have a unique opportunity to be part of a respected platform focused on the most critical governance issues of our time. Your company's brand will be front and center in discussions on responsible capitalism and governance, reaching top-tier academics, corporate leaders, investors, and policymakers globally. Additionally, you will be directly supporting a promising young academic in the quest to identify what is shaping the future of corporate governance.
